Play Everybody's favourite winter festival: DEEP WINTER CHILL! Enjoy the original soundtrack and exclusive bonus content All songs from the festival are included in the game as they were performed live:The present invention is directed to a collapsible stand-up tent including a tent frame, a tent canvas fabric, and a plurality of support members for supporting the tent frame and the tent canvas fabric on the ground, and to a method of erecting a collapsible stand-up tent. The use of tents and related equipment to provide shelter during outdoor activities such as camping is well known. Over the years, various types of tents have been developed, including conventional non-collapsible tents, collapsible tents, and collapsible tents having telescoping support legs. Examples of conventional non-collapsible tents are disclosed in U.S. Pat. Nos. 4,560,138, 3,666,849, 3,255,943, and 5,546,683. Examples of collapsible tents are disclosed in U.S. Pat. Nos. 4,997,194, 5,000,453, 5,243,747, and 5,499,916. Examples of collapsible tents having telescoping support legs are disclosed in U.S. Pat. Nos. 4,572,408, 4,926,772, 5,365,801, and 6,033,157. The present invention is directed to a collapsible stand-up tent including a tent frame, a tent canvas fabric, and a plurality of support members for supporting the tent frame and the tent canvas fabric on the ground. In the preferred embodiment, the stand-up tent includes a large circumferential tent canvas fabric which is formed as a single piece and which surrounds a tent frame having four side walls and four end walls. The tent frame includes a plurality of poles made up of tubular sections and an apex pole having a central aperture for receiving a center pole of the tent frame. The apex pole is inserted through the aperture in the center pole, and the top end of the apex pole is then hooked over a top edge of the circumferential tent fabric to hold the tent frame and the tent canvas fabric together. Preferably, the tent frame is formed from tubular sections which are telescopically expanded and collapsed to facilitate storage. As shown in the preferred embodiment, the tubular sections are generally Z-shaped and are formed from elongated tubular sections, which are approximately eight inches long

I just wish there was some kind of tweaking or at least "seeding" so that when you get on the bus and it will "seem" to read the time, it'll look right. I don't like the idea of

What's new:

Review conflict of nations is an RTS game that employs the relationship between the allied nations and the enemy nations. there are small huddled little camels and rich tall camels, larger and more wicked camels. You start with 500 camels and you play a time of 3 turns per day. In this game you play as a commander of one of the alliances. You have to gather camels, gold, bronze and stone to prepare for the battle. The camels are based on the nations of the allies. you have only 1 turn to 1 os an war and it's great! The Rules

1.2 Gold: Each nations has a different amount of gold they can have at any time. The minimum amount is 20, but the maximum is 2,000.

1.3 Camel supplies: Each allied country has a certain amount of camels. When a country collects 1000 camels, the entire camp can produce any number of camels, except the default 0 ones.

1.4 Stone, Bronze, and Gold: Each nation also has a certain number of camels, gold, and bronze that they can produce.

Gold is normally more valuable than bronze and bronze is normally more valuable than stone. Camels, Gold, and Bronze are limited by camels supplies. 1.5 Inter-Nation Relation: The allisations are unfortunately more hostile to the other alliance. For example, the german alliance will capture camels, gold, stone, and bronze if it can. It also rewards more camels, gold and bronze to allies and enemies alike. 1.6 Alliances: There are 3 alliances that you play against. You start in an alliance and, after the time passes, the rank that you held will go up or down depending on your performance in the war. 1.7 Battlefield: In each turn there are 3 places on the battlefield where the battle occurs. Camels can only be exchanged at these 3 regions. All regions on the battlefield have a number. Camels (and any other resource) can only move to regions that are more populated than their current location. For example, moving from an empty region (a 1) to a region that is mostly occupied(a 2) is a successful move. The

City of Sin is the second expansion for EMPIRE OF SIN, a game where players can invade, pillage, and plunder the western world in a frantic struggle for domination. A card game where timing is everything, CITY OF SIN is one of the few games where you can have fun while playing your hand badly. Features: THE MARCH TO CHICAGO Chicago is the Wild West's greatest show. Invade the city and conquer its seven districts with the help of the territory lords to earn victory points in the fight for its valuable profits. NEGOTIATE YOUR TERRITORY COSTS In order to fill your coffers with spoils, you will have to negotiate with the territory lords. Do so smartly or you'll end up with empty pockets and the loss of valuable territory. LEAVE YOUR IMPRESSIONS Leave your mark on history by taking over the city, but beware that staying in the city too long has a negative impact on your ability to negotiate. A POWERFUL,

VARIETY OF SUPPLY CARDS With a variety of unique supply cards, players can choose from among nine different supply cards to conquer the western world. GRAPHIC EXPLORATION See your game from a different angle with two special scenarios and discover new territory! CITY OF SIN 2 - THE U.S.A. Storyline The United States of America. A land of hope and glory where people believe in democracy and the American dream. A land where everyone gets to be president. But behind the scenes, the mafia are plotting to obtain control of the United States. With the help of the right person or persons, they plan to create a dictatorship. Game Modes Matches are played with three players. The game ends as soon as one player has won. Players earn victory points for each territory district they control in Chicago, and each turn is played in one of the four phases: • Diplomacy: Players negotiate with the territory lords by placing a supply card on the board. • Adoption: Players gain control of one of the territory districts in Chicago. • Expansion: Players place their own supply cards on the board and compete to get to the top of the rankings. • Conquest: Players earn victory points for each territory district they control in Chicago. Game Mechanics • The game ends as soon as one player has won, regardless of who is the most advanced in points
